

Langley Twigg Terms of Engagement

1. The purpose of this document

1.1 This document:

- (a) sets out the standard terms on which we do work for our clients;
- (b) explains what you can expect from us and what you agree to when we work for you;
- (c) includes information we are required to tell you under the New Zealand Law Society's Rules of Conduct and Client Care for Lawyers; and
- (d) applies to any current work and to any future work we do for you (unless we agree in writing to change these terms).

1.2 We may change these terms at any time, and will publish the amended terms on our website. The amended terms will bind you in respect of any matters on which we accept instructions after publication of the amended terms.

2. Our duties to you

2.1 When we do work for you, we will:

- (a) protect your privacy and confidentiality;
 - (b) act competently, promptly, and according to your instructions;
 - (c) protect and promote your interests;
 - (d) give you clear information and advice;
 - (e) keep you informed about progress;
 - (f) treat you fairly and respectfully; and
 - (g) charge you a fee that is fair and reasonable,
- subject to any overriding duties we have (e.g. to the courts and the justice system) and any legal obligations we have (e.g. to provide information to some government agencies).

2.2 For the avoidance of doubt, our duties are owed to you, the client. Nobody else (including family members, shareholders, directors, or related entities) can rely on our advice without our written consent.

3. Your privacy and confidentiality

3.1 We consider client confidentiality to be of utmost importance. We will treat all information we hold about you in strict confidence. We will not use it or share it unless:

- (a) you agree or ask us to;
- (b) we need to so we can carry out work for you;
- (c) the law requires us to (e.g. Inland Revenue, the Financial Markets Authority, and other government agencies have powers to compel us to provide information we have about you); or
- (d) the Rules of Conduct and Client Care for Lawyers permit us to.

3.2 Information we hold about you will, as far as practicable, only be made available to our partners and staff who are doing work for you.

3.3 We may provide any information we hold relating to your United States Global Accounts Tax Compliance Act (GATCA) or Common Reporting Standard (CRS) status, or other GATCA or CRS matters, to Inland Revenue and to our banks if they request information to be able to meet their GATCA or CRS obligations. Please ask us if you would like more information about GATCA or CRS.

4. How we avoid conflicts of interest

- 4.1 When we do work for you, we will always protect and promote your interests.
- 4.2 Before we accept an instruction from you, we will do our best to identify any potential for a conflict of interest to arise and bring any such conflict to your attention.
- 4.3 If an actual conflict should arise at any time, we will immediately let you know and tell you how we plan to deal with the conflict.
- 4.4 If you believe that a conflict of interest has arisen or may arise, please inform us immediately.

5. Scope of our work

- 5.1 We are not qualified to give:
 - (a) investment or financial advice. You should get that advice from a qualified financial advisor;
 - (b) tax and accounting advice. You should get that advice from your accountant or tax advisor;
 - (c) insurance advice. You should get that advice from your insurance broker;
 - (d) valuation advice. You should get that from a qualified valuer;
 - (e) advice on any externally provided reports such as Land Information Memoranda or Building Reports; or
 - (f) advice about foreign laws. However, we can help you to contact a lawyer in the other country.
- 5.2 Unless we agree to do so in writing, we will not:
 - (a) remind you about dates (e.g. PPSR, lease, or consent expiry dates); or
 - (b) update advice after it is given.

6. Intellectual property

- 6.1 Unless we agree otherwise:
 - (a) we retain ownership of all opinions, documents, and other intellectual property created by us; and
 - (b) you must not provide our advice to others (such as using our opinions in any public document or statement).

7. Emails

- 7.1 We may communicate with you by email about the work we do for you.
- 7.2 We have virus protection software and security protocols in place, however, we cannot guarantee that electronic communications will always be free from viruses or other defects, are secure, or will be received. We do not accept responsibility for, and will not be liable for any change and/or loss caused in connection with, or as a consequence of, any interference or interception, virus or other defect in an electronic communication.
- 7.3 We may occasionally email you information we think is relevant and useful to you. If you do not want to receive that information, let us know.

8. Storing records

- 8.1 We will keep a record of all material documents we receive or create working for you on each instruction on the following basis:
 - (a) we may, at any time, keep a document electronically and destroy paper originals (this includes any original documents you give to us unless you tell us you do not want them to be destroyed, in which case, we may return the originals to you once we have made an electronic copy). We will not destroy any original documents we have agreed to hold in safe custody for you (e.g. your Will);

- (b) we may, at any time, dispose of documents that are duplicates, do not contain substantive information, or belong to us; and
 - (c) if you ask us to provide documents to you or another person, we are not obliged to retain copies of those documents, but we may do so for our own records.
- 8.2 We will provide you with copies of documents to which you are entitled under the Privacy Act or any other law if you ask us to. We may charge you our reasonable costs to do so.
- 8.3 You authorise us (without further reference to you) to destroy, or delete in the case of electronic documents, all files and documents relating to an instruction seven years after that instruction has been completed. We may retain files and documents for longer at our option.

9. How you can help us

- 9.1 You can help us by:
- (a) giving us clear instructions;
 - (b) asking if there is anything you are not sure of;
 - (c) telling us if you have any important time limits;
 - (d) dealing promptly with any questions we have;
 - (e) telling us if your contact details change;
 - (f) keeping in touch. Please ask if you are concerned about anything or do not hear from us when expected; and
 - (g) letting us know if any additional material facts come to light or your circumstances change in a material way.

10. Who we can accept instructions from

- 10.1 Unless you let us know otherwise:
- (a) if you are a couple, we can accept instructions from either of you;
 - (b) if you are a trust, we can accept instructions from any of your trustees or officers;
 - (c) if you are a partnership, we can accept instructions from any of your partners or officers;
 - (d) if you are a company, we can accept instructions from any of your directors or employees or any other person you have authorised to instruct us; and
 - (e) if you are a body corporate or incorporated society, we can accept instructions from any person holding themselves out as being authorised by the officers to instruct us.

11. Verifying your identity and source of funds, and credit checks

- 11.1 We are required by law to verify your identity and, in some circumstances, the source of funds for a transaction.
- 11.2 We may wish to carry out reasonable credit checks on you from time to time.
- 11.3 You authorise us to collect information about you (including customer due diligence information and credit reports), to obtain, exchange, hold, and use such information, and to make any other enquiries we think appropriate to:
- (a) confirm information provided to us about you is true;
 - (b) undertake initial and on-going customer due diligence and monitoring in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act (AML/CFT Act);
 - (c) enforce debt and legal obligations (including recovery of money owed to us); and
 - (d) comply with other legal obligations we may have.

- 11.4 You authorise any person (including credit reporters) to disclose information (including credit information) to us in response to such enquiries.
- 11.5 You accept that we may use customer due diligence services (including electronic based services from a third party) to verify your identity and conduct other customer due diligence or monitoring required under the AML/CFT Act, and that we may use credit reporting services to credit check you, and that when we use such services:
- (a) the other third party or credit reporter (each a Service Provider) will exchange information about you for that purpose and the Service Provider may hold information on its system and use it to provide their customer due diligence service or credit reporting service (as the case may be) to their other customers;
 - (b) we may use the Service Provider's services in the future for any authorised purpose (including in relation to ongoing customer due diligence or the provision of credit). This may include using the Service Provider's monitoring services to receive updates if information held about you changes; and
 - (c) if you default in your payment obligations to us, information about that default may be given to credit reporters and given by credit reporters to their other customers.

12. Our fees and expenses

- 12.1 We will charge you fair and reasonable fees.
- 12.2 Unless we agree with you otherwise, our fees will be calculated based on the time we spend on a matter charged at our hourly rates, and adjusted where appropriate for other factors permitted by the Rules of Conduct and Client Care for Lawyers (such as the complexity, urgency, importance, specialised knowledge, responsibility and risk involved, and the results achieved). We will provide you with our hourly rates on request.
- 12.3 We will give you an estimate of fees if you ask for one. Special fee arrangements may be available for certain work (e.g. capped fees). Any estimate or special fee arrangement for a matter will be outlined in our letter of engagement.
- 12.4 If you have any questions about our fees, please ask.
- 12.5 Unless we state otherwise, our fees, estimates, and hourly rates do not include Goods and Services Tax (GST) or office expenses and disbursements, which are payable by you.
- 12.6 Our services usually incur GST. If this is the case, GST is payable by you on our fees and charges.
- 12.7 We charge you a fee to cover office expenses (such as photocopying, printing, phone calls, faxing and file storage). This will be included separately on our account to you.
- 12.8 We may have to cover some expenses or make other payments on your behalf (such as search fees, registration fees, travel costs, court fees, and agents' fees). You authorise us to incur these expenses, which will be shown on our account to you.
- 12.9 Fees, hourly rates, office expenses, and disbursements may change from time to time without notice.
- 12.10 In some cases, you may be eligible for legal aid. If you want to apply for legal aid, We will let you know whether we would be prepared to work on that matter on a legally aided basis. If not, we will refer you to another law firm.
- 12.11 We reserve the right to ask you to make an upfront payment to cover our fees.

13. Guarantee

- 13.1 If you are a company or other incorporated entity, we may require personal guarantees from your directors, shareholders, or other officers.

14. Paying your account

- 14.1 We issue accounts monthly and on completion of a matter or the ending of our engagement. We may also send you an account when we incur a significant expense.
- 14.2 Our accounts are due to be paid by the 20th of the month following the date of our account.
- 14.3 If you have any questions about an account, please contact us straight away.
- 14.4 If you elect to pay our account by credit card, we may charge you an additional [1.5%] of the amount you pay.
- 14.5 Sometimes we may require you to pay fees, office expenses, and disbursements in advance. If we do, we will hold your payment in our trust account and only deduct our fees, office expenses, and disbursements when we issue you an account.
- 14.6 If we hold funds in our trust account on your behalf (including any judgment, sale proceeds, settlement amount, or other money), you authorise us to deduct any fees, office expenses, or disbursements for which we have issued you an account for.
- 14.7 We may charge interest on unpaid accounts at the rate of 12% per annum above the Official Cash Rate of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand calculated on a daily basis and charged monthly. We may take action to recover unpaid accounts and charge you the cost of that recovery.
- 14.8 Any failure or delay by us to charge interest on an unpaid account or to exercise any of our other rights will not operate as a waiver of those rights.
- 14.9 If your account is overdue we may:
- (a) stop work we are doing for you until our account is paid in full; and
 - (b) require an additional payment of fees in advance or other security before starting work again; and
 - (c) exercise our right to retain documents and other information about the work that we have done for you.

We will not be liable for any consequences of our stopping work if your account is overdue.

- 14.10 At your request or with your approval, we may send our accounts to a third party to pay on your behalf. You are still responsible for payment by the due date if the third party does not pay us.

15. Money handling procedures

- 15.1 We maintain a trust account for all funds we hold on behalf of clients (except funds we receive for payment of accounts).
- 15.2 If we hold funds on your behalf, we may deposit them in an interest-bearing deposit with a bank where reasonable, practicable and cost effective. We are not responsible for obtaining the best interest rate available or for any loss of interest you suffer as a result of delay in placing your funds in an interest-bearing deposit.
- 15.3 We generally charge a 5% administration fee on the gross interest earned on funds held in an interest-bearing deposit. Withholding tax will be deducted on the interest earned and paid to Inland Revenue. If we have your IRD number, you can elect to have withholding tax deducted at your applicable rate. If we do not have your IRD number, we are required to deduct it at the default rate (which may be higher than your actual rate).
- 15.4 Where you transfer funds to or from our trust account in a foreign currency, we will convert those funds into New Zealand dollars at the prevailing exchange rate offered by our bank. For the avoidance of doubt, we are in no way responsible for seeking or obtaining a better exchange rate.

15.5 If we hold a small value of funds on your behalf (less than NZ $20.00) and we are unable to contact you, you authorise us to pay the funds to a charity of our choice.

16. Limiting our liability to you

16.1 We limit our liability to you. The maximum aggregate amount that we will have to pay you is the amount set by the New Zealand Law Society as the minimum standard for the indemnity limit of our professional indemnity insurance. We will not have to pay you more than the maximum aggregate amount for anything caused by or resulting from anything we do or do not do, or delay in doing, whether or not it is contemplated or authorised by any agreement with you.

16.2 The limit in clause 16.1 applies to the extent permitted by law, whatever you are claiming for, and however liability arises or might arise if not for this clause (whether in contract, tort (including negligence), equity, or otherwise).

16.3 If you are more than one person (such as a couple or partnership), this maximum is the maximum combined amount that we will have to pay you together.

16.4 If you engage us to do work for the purposes of a business, you agree the Consumer Guarantees Act does not apply. Otherwise, nothing in this clause 16 limits any rights you may have under the Consumer Guarantees Act.

16.5 We shall not be liable for any loss or liability caused or contributed to by inaccurate or incomplete information supplied by you or third parties (including public records and expert witnesses) or because you did not receive or read a communication we sent you.

17. Ending our engagement

17.1 You may end our engagement at any time by giving us reasonable notice.

17.2 If we have good cause, we may decide to stop working for you, such as if you:

- (a) do not provide us with instructions promptly;
- (b) are unable to, or do not, pay our fees as agreed;
- (c) give us instructions that require us to breach any professional obligation, or mislead or deceive us in a material respect; or
- (d) against our advice, act in a way we believe is highly imprudent and may be inconsistent with our fundamental obligations as lawyers. This does not apply to litigation instructions.

17.3 If we decide to stop working for you, we will give you reasonable notice and help you find another lawyer.

17.4 Before you take your records, you need to pay our fees for the work we have done for you. We may keep a copy of any records you take.

18. Enforceability of these terms

18.1 The enforceability of these terms is not affected by:

- (a) the ending of our engagement; or
- (b) any changes to our partners or the incorporation of our firm.

19. New Zealand law applies

19.1 Our relationship is governed by New Zealand law and the New Zealand courts have exclusive jurisdiction.

20. Professional indemnity insurance and Lawyers' Fidelity Fund

20.1 We hold professional indemnity insurance that meets the New Zealand Law Society's minimum standards. If you would like further information about our insurance, please ask.

20.2 The New Zealand Law Society operates a Lawyers' Fidelity Fund to compensate clients who suffer theft of money or property entrusted to lawyers. The Fund covers losses of up to NZ $100,000 per individual claimant. It does not cover loss where you have instructed us to invest money on your behalf (subject to limited exceptions set out in the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act).

21. How we handle complaints

21.1 We are committed to providing services of the highest professional standards.

21.2 We will deal with any complaints promptly and fairly.

21.3 Please contact us straight away if you have a question about an account or if you are unhappy with any other aspect of our work. You may contact:

(a) the partner responsible for your work; or

(b) our Chief Executive Officer by phone, post, or email to antony@langleytwigg.co.nz.

21.4 The New Zealand Law Society also has a complaints service. Please telephone 0800 261 801 for information and advice about making a complaint.

22. Client care and service information

22.1 We are committed to complying with the New Zealand Law Society's Rules of Conduct and Client Care for Lawyers. The following statement describes some of our professional responsibilities to you:

Whatever legal services your lawyer is providing, he or she must:

(a) act competently, in a timely way, and in accordance with instructions received and arrangements made;

(b) protect and promote your interests and act for you free from compromising influences or loyalties;

(c) discuss with you your objectives and how they should best be achieved;

(d) provide you with information about the work to be done, who will do it, and the way the services will be provided;

(e) charge you a fee that is fair and reasonable and let you know how and when you will be billed;

(f) give you clear information and advice;

(g) protect your privacy and ensure appropriate confidentiality;

(h) treat you fairly, respectfully, and without discrimination;

(i) keep you informed about the work being done and advise you when it is completed; and

(j) let you know how to make a complaint and deal with any complaint promptly and fairly.

22.2 The obligations lawyers owe to clients are described in the Rules of Conduct and Client Care for Lawyers. Those obligations are subject to overriding duties, including duties to the courts and to the justice system. If you have any questions, please visit www.lawsociety.org.nz or call the New Zealand Law Society on 0800 261 801.

We value our relationships with our clients.

If you have any questions about these terms, please ask.

Effective from 18 September 2017
